

THE ARTS
COUNCIL OF
PRINCETON
PRESENTS

The Anne
Reeves
Artist in Residence
Fall 2014

Lisa Botalico

The Fire of Flamenco

FREE Flamenco Dance & Art Workshop
Saturday, September 6, 1-3pm

At the ACP's Pop-Up Studio in the Princeton Shopping Center, 301 N. Harrison St. Join Lisa Botalico and artist Libby Ramage for this FREE dance & art workshop. Open to the public & all ages are encouraged to attend.

Why We Dance Flamenco: Intergenerational Dance Dialogues

Sunday, September 14, 2-3pm

In the Dance Studio at the Paul Robeson Center for the Arts, 102 Witherspoon St. This public forum is FREE & open to the public.

Finding Light through Fire

Saturday, October 18, 7:30pm

In the Solley Theater at the Paul Robeson Center for the Arts, 102 Witherspoon St. Experience the power and soul of Flamenco dance, song, music, and live artwork up-close in the intimate Solley Theater!

For more information about these events or the Artist in Residence Program, please call 609-924-8777 or visit artscouncilofprinceton.org

This workshop is supported in part by generous contributions from the Anne Reeves Fund, Wells Fargo Foundation, Charles Galbraith Trust, J. Seward Johnson, Sr. 1963 Charitable Trust

ARTS COUNCIL OF
PRINCETON

PAUL ROBESON CENTER FOR THE ARTS
102 Witherspoon Street, Princeton
609.924.8777 artscouncilofprinceton.org

