Press Release

Princeton, NJ- From March through June, the Arts Council of Princeton (ACP) presents the Jazz and Beyond concert series celebrating local performers who are debuting material from new CDs. Each concert is an opportunity to meet the musicians and take home fresh music. The concerts will take place at the Paul Robeson Center for the Arts, 102 Witherspoon Street, Princeton, NJ 08542.

On Saturday, May 9, at 8pm The Arts Council of Princeton presents Tom Tallitsch performing music from his 6th album, All Together Now. Tallitsch's compositions provide a range of strong, memorable melodies, hard grooves, soft ballads and a warm sound. Featuring a lineup of exclusively Posi-Tone recording artists, devoted listeners and new fans will experience a fresh and contemporary approach to today's exciting jazz scene. Tallitsch will be featured as a guest DJ and have an exclusive interview on Princeton's WPRB 103.3 FM from 11am-2pm on Friday, May 8. All Together Now will be available for purchase the evening of the performance at the Paul Robeson Center for the Arts. Additionally, all new releases from the Jazz and Beyond Series will be available at the new 'local artist' section at the Princeton Record Exchange.

Tom Tallitsch has performed as a jazz saxophonist for over 25 years throughout the United States, Europe, and South America. His compositions include improvisational, written, and recorded music for dance, his works having been used by dancers from the Martha Graham Dance Company. In addition, Tom currently tutors jazz saxophone students in Princeton and teaches piano students with autism at The Princeton Child Development Institute.

Tickets will be available at the door 30 minutes before show time on a first-come, first-served basis. $12 General Admission/$10 ACP members, students & seniors. For more information, please visit www.artscouncilofprinceton.org or call (609) 924-8777. Parking is available in the Spring and Hulfish Street Garages and at metered parking spots along Witherspoon Street and Paul Robeson Place.

The Arts Council of Princeton, founded in 1967, is a non-profit organization with a mission of Building Community through the Arts. Housed in the landmark Paul Robeson Center for the Arts, designed by architect Michael Graves, the ACP fulfills its mission by presenting a wide range of programs including exhibitions, performances, free community cultural events, and studio-based classes and workshops in a wide range of media. Arts Council of Princeton programs are designed to be high-quality, engaging, affordable and accessible for the diverse population of the greater Princeton region.
